Policy Statement on Morden Slavery and Anti Human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that modern slavery and human trafficking do not occur in our workplace or within our supply chain. The company has a zero-tolerance approach to modern-day slavery. The company has instituted various policies and programs to establish the framework of our commitment to human rights and ethical behavior in our work environment.

Modern-day slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as forced labour, sex trafficking, involuntary servitude, and human trafficking, all which force persons to work against their will in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain. The company is committed to continually reviewing and improving our efforts to combat slavery and human trafficking.

Human trafficking refers to the exploitation of individuals through threat or use of force, coercion, abduction, fraud, and/or deception. These terms also include the practices of forced labor, debt bondage, domestic servitude, forced marriage, sex trafficking, child sex trafficking, and the unwell full recruitment and use of individuals, retaining identity or travel documents against offering employment (Unlawful recruitment) among others.

Everyone in our work environment must be treated with dignity and respect. We do not tolerate any form of harassment, whether sexual, physical, verbal or psychological.

We do not use forced labour in any form. We do not confiscate personal documents of our employees or force them to make any payment to us or to anyone else in order to secure employment with us, or to work with us.

We shall respect the human rights and dignity of all our stakeholders.

We seek to work with suppliers and service providers who can demonstrate that they share similar values. We expect them to adopt ethical standards comparable to our own.
